COSAD is a Minnesota based 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization founded to build partnerships that create sustainable community development through the support of projects involving health, education, culture and micro-enterprise in Tanzania. The Bruce Lane Johnson Community and Resource Center, TACE, CHAI, and other great programs are all supported and sustained through COSAD. For more information about individual programs offered by COSAD, visit the web site at www.cosad.org.

Tickets can be purchased at Prince of Peace on February 14 & 21 or make checks payable to COSAD for $25 per ticket and mail to:

Dave Barker
4001 Silver Lake Road
St. Anthony, MN 55421

Your tickets will be mailed to the address listed on your check.

If you are unable to attend the event and would like to make a tax-deductible donation to COSAD, go to www.COSAD.org.
